GREET YOUR NEIGHBOR

SONG

TIME OF CONFESSION

Ever-present God, Your promises are sure. We are your covenant people, and your faithfulness has not wavered. Yet, we act as if we are alone in a hostile world. We approach our lives fearfully, waiting for the ax to fall, the shoe to drop, the boogie man to spring from under our beds. You promise us again, and again, that You will be with us, that we do not need be afraid. Help us to live out of that promise, instead of out of our fear. Give us courage, God, courage to trust You, to face our fears, and to live into the promise of hope and love that is Jesus Christ. Hear now the prayers of our hearts as we give our fears into Your hands...
